Analytics Powered By SAS[®] logo

Revised January 2019

The "Analytics Powered By SAS" logo identifies SAS as the analytics provider for our customers. It is the most succinct way to say, "We use SAS® Analytics software."

Please adhere to the guidelines on the following pages when using this logo. They are in place to ensure that the logo always looks the way it was meant to look. Following these few simple rules fosters a good reflection on both your organization and the SAS brand.

Exclusion zone

There is a recommended exclusion zone, or clear space, around the Analytics Powered By SAS logo, which is approximately equal to the height of the “S-mark” graphic that is part of the logo scaled to the size you intend to use. Whenever possible, honor this space to avoid any unintended suggestion of a relationship with other design elements or logos.

As a general rule, no other logo, images or text are allowed in the exclusion zone unless there is an agreement to pair it with a team or league logo. Exceptions for adjacent text are considered where space is limited. Use good design judgment to maintain clear space around the Analytics Powered By SAS logo.
